

Piedmont Climate Action Plan Task Force

October 24, 2017

Agenda

- Report on Climate Action Plan and Next Steps (20 minutes)
- Update on November 7th Community Workshop (30 minutes)
- Discussion on Second Community Workshop (20 minutes)

Report on Climate Action Plan and Next Steps

20 Minutes

CAP Update and Next Steps

- Draft CAP expected to be ready for a Friday, October 27th distribution to Task Force members and to City Department Heads for their review.
- Comments back to Staff by Friday, November 10th
- Staff incorporates comments from TF members, Department Heads and from the Nov. 7th Community Workshop into Climate Action Plan
- CAP uploaded to City's website (date announced during Nov. 7th workshop)
- Task Force makes a recommendation for CAP adoption by City Council (Nov. 28th meeting)
- Present final draft to City Council and apply for Negative Declaration under CEQA
- Incorporate Citizen's comments and prepare Negative Declaration for the CAP
- Present Climate Action Plan to City Council for final adoption

Update on November 7th Community Workshop

30 Minutes

November 7th Community Workshop

- The meeting will be from 7:30-9:00 PM at the Piedmont Community Hall
- Format and items covered during the meeting:
  - Overview of the Climate Action Plan, and date it will be posted on our website (Staff, 10 minutes)
  - “Piedmont’s Carbon Footprint (A Consumption Based Model study)” – presentation by Chris Jones, Program Director, CoolClimate Network - Renewable and Appropriate Energy Laboratory, UC Berkeley (15 minutes)
  - “Introducing East Bay Community Energy” – presentation by Tim Rood, City of Piedmont City Council Member (15 minutes)
  - “Putting the ACTION in Climate Action” – presentation by Sarah Moe, Senior Consultant at DNV GL (15 minutes)
  - Q&A, and breakout discussion session (key questions for participants)
  - Survey to participants, sign-up sheet for interest list

Discussion on Second Community Workshop

- Any ideas on possible dates, topics, format?